- Possess good character and fulfil all additional criteria as determined by the university from time to time.

General Rules Regarding Admission, Examination, and Curriculum

1. Admission Process

- Admission to the B.A. LL.B. program is conducted through an Entrance Test organized by the University.
- Admission to the first semester is governed by the rules set by the Bar Council of India.
- Candidates must have secured at least 45% marks in their qualifying examination. However, candidates from SC/ST categories are granted a 5% relaxation, requiring a minimum of 40% marks in the qualifying examination.

2. Eligibility Criteria for Admission

- A candidate is eligible for admission to B.A. LL.B. only if they have successfully passed 10+2 or any equivalent examination from a recognized board or institution, as accepted by Maa Vindhyavasini University, Mirzapur
- The maximum age limit for admission is 22 years as of July in the year of admission.

3. Duration and Structure of the Course

- The B.A. LL.B. program spans a total duration of five academic years, with each academic year consisting of two semesters.
- Semester examinations are conducted at the end of each semester.

4. Lecture and Attendance Requirements

- Each paper requires a minimum of 30 lectures, and no more than two lectures for the same paper can be scheduled in a single day.
- A student must pass all the papers in each semester to qualify for the B.A. LL.B. degree.
- A student must secure at least 36% marks in each paper and a minimum aggregate of 45% marks in each academic year to pass the B.A. LL.B. program.

5. Classification of Divisions

- Second Division: Students securing 45% or more but less than 60%.
- First Division: Students securing 60% or more.

6. Restrictions on Pursuing Other Courses

Once admitted to the B.A. LL.B. regular course, a student cannot enrol in any other course simultaneously.

7. Medium of Examination

- The medium of examination will be either Hindi or English.
- The student must specify their preferred medium while filling out the examination form.

8. Examination Form Submission

Before appearing for the semester examination, a student must fill out and submit the examination form within the time frame specified by the University.

9. Attendance Requirement for Examination

- Only students who have completed the required attendance for each paper in a semester will be eligible to appear in the examination.
- If a student fails to appear in an examination or is unable to clear it, they may appear as an ex-student in the next regular examination, provided they have fulfilled the attendance criteria.
- Students with less than 75% attendance in any paper will not be allowed to appear for the examination. However, attendance may be condoned up to 66% based on the recommendation of the Dean/Head and approval from the Vice-Chancellor, provided there are valid reasons such as health issues or other justifiable causes.

10. Examination and Evaluation

- Each semester paper carries a total of 100 marks.
 - 75 marks are allocated for the written examination.
 - 25 marks are assigned for Assignments and Oral Presentations, except for practical papers.
- 50% of the examination papers will be assessed externally, while the remaining 50% will be evaluated internally.
- Each semester consists of six papers, and a student must pass each paper to progress.

Rules Regarding Improvement

11. Improvement Examination

Improvement examinations for each semester will be conducted as per the University Rules.

Rules Regarding Promotion

12. Promotion Criteria

- A student will not be promoted to the next semester if they have been detained due to a shortage of attendance.
- Subject to the above rule, students of B.A. LL.B. I, III, V, VII, or IX semester will be eligible for promotion to II, IV, VI, VIII, or X semester, respectively, regardless of the number of papers they have failed or failed to appear in.

BALTB-1006

Paper – VI

Moot Court Exercise and Internship (Clinical) (Practical Training – V + Viva-Voce)

Marks: =100

Credits : 2+2=4

Course Objective

1. To understand the practical applicability of procedural laws through moot court exercises and internships.
2. To enhance students' advocacy skills and legal reasoning by participating in moot courts.
3. To provide practical exposure by observing court proceedings in civil and criminal cases.
4. To develop interviewing techniques, pre-trial preparation skills, and professional legal conduct.

Course components:

Part I: Written Assignment (50 Marks / 2 Credits)

- Each student shall be required to participate in at least three moot courts based on assigned problems. The performance shall be evaluated on the basis of written submissions.
- Students shall observe trials in two cases, one civil and one criminal, during the course of the last four or five years of the B.A. LL.B. programme. They shall maintain a detailed record of the proceedings, noting the various stages observed on different dates of hearing as part of their court assignment.
- Students shall also be required to observe at least two client interviewing sessions at a Lawyer's Office or Legal Aid Office and record the same in a diary, focusing on interviewing techniques.
- Further, students shall observe pre-trial preparations, including drafting of documents and court papers by advocates, as well as the procedure for filing of suits or petitions, and record these observations in their internship diary.

Part II: Viva-Voce (50 Marks / 2 Credits)

- The viva-voce examination shall be conducted on the basis of the components covered under Part I, including moot court exercises, court observations, interviewing techniques, pre-trial preparations, and internship records.
